

OF&G Quality Manual	RD225 Producer Conversion Plan and Inspection Form 5 – Greenhouses, Potted Plants, Transplants and Sprouted Seeds.
Linked Documents:	Control Manual

To be completed by all producers

Name of Producer		Registration No.
-------------------------	--	-------------------------	--

Greenhouse Crops.

		Producer's answers			Inspector's comments
5.1	7.9.32 What will be the main greenhouse crops in the rotation? Start with the fertility building crops and finish with the last crop.	Yr1	Yr2	Yr3
		Yr4	Yr5	Yr6
5.2	7.9.30 Are greenhouse crops grown in the soil?
5.3	7.9.27 Are conventional transplants grown on in organic soil for six weeks or more?
5.4	6.2.20 Do you keep a crop plan for 2 years ahead?
5.5	7.9.33 Is the greenhouse area dedicated to the organic production?
5.6	7.9.33 If the greenhouse area used is not dedicated for organic production how is it separated from that used for conventional eg polythene sheeting from floor to roof to isolate the volume of air?
5.7	6.2.21 How are records of crop yields kept?

Potted Plants and Transplants.

		Producer's answers		Inspector's comments
5.8	Are you producing transplants or potted plants for wholesale/retail sale or own use?
5.9	What type of plants are produced?
5.10	Is there parallel production of plants of the same species as organic and conventional? If so clarify how separation is maintained?

5.11	Where are the plants grown?
5.12	How are the plants to be labelled?
5.13	7.9.33 If plants are grown in a greenhouse is the area dedicated to organic production?
5.14	7.9.33 If the greenhouse area used is not dedicated explain how it is separated from that used for conventional eg polythene sheeting from floor to roof to isolate the volume of air?
5.15	7.9.44 What growing mediums are used, naming the products?

Crop Management.

Producer's answers

Inspector's comments

5.16	7.10.03 What weed control methods are used?
5.17	7.11.01 What pest and disease control methods are used?

Sprouted Seeds.

Producer's answers

Inspector's comments

5.18	What types of sprouted seed are grown?
5.19	Describe how the sprouted seeds are produced.
5.20	Describe the packing of the sprouted seeds.			